THE CROSSVILLE CHRONICLE, Crossville, Tenn.

CHANCERY LAND SALE.

J. W. Hembree

vs

Mattie Hembree

No. 1248.

Edward Hembree, et al

vs

Mattie Hembree, et al

No. 1271.

At the August term, 1915, of the Chancery Court at Crossville, the following lands involved in the above styled consolidated causes were ordered sold by the Clerk and Master, to wit: One tract, containing 89 1-2 acres, being a part of the old home place and known as the James W. Hembree old home place and fully described by metes and bounds as the second tract in a report made by Commissioners James Smith, A. J. McGuire and G. W. Toney to this court. Said report is on file in my office and is referred to for a full description.

Second tract: Containing about sixty acres, about one mile south of Pomona, Tenn., on both sides of the Memphis-to-Bristol Highway, bounded north by Barnes, east by Wilt, south by Matthews and Dayton, and west by Shroyer.

Third tract, being three lots in the town of Pomona, Tennessee, fronting 150 feet on the Crossville road, same tract conveyed by J. N. Myers and wife to J. W. Hembree, recorded in book 9, page 120, register's office at Crossville.

The above tracts of land will be offered for sale at the court house door in Crossville to the highest and best bidder on the 29th day of December, 1915, for one-third cash, balance six and twelve months, notes bearing interest, retaining a lien on the land and personal security will be required of the purchaser.

This Nov. 29, 1915.

C. G. Black,
Clerk and Master.

COUGHS AND COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

Few of us realize the danger of coughs and colds. We consider them common and harmless ailments. However statistics tell us every third person dies of a lung ailment. Dangerous bronchial and lung diseases follow a neglected cold. As your body struggles against cold germs, no better aid can be had than Dr. King's New Discovery. Its merit has been tested by thousands of men and women for 45 years. Get a bottle today. Avoid the risk of serious lung ailments. At Druggists.

Mrs. Frances Lockhart, who broke her arm several days ago, is slowly improving.

Thos. Whittaker, of Monterey, was out here Friday on business.

Wilbury Todd attended Sunday school in Toddtown Sunday.

Willie Norman and James Raydon attended the Teachers' examinations at Jamestown Saturday.

E. M. Peters and Otto Peters were visiting at Walter Elmore's last Sunday.

Preston McDonald and sister, Miss Viola, of Nettle Carrier, were visiting their brother, W. E. McDonald, a few days last week.

Prof. Little and wife spent several days in Jamestown last week. Mrs. Little took the teachers' examinations.

Robt. McCoy is very sick with fever. It seems they have small hopes of his recovery. However, we hope there will soon be a change for the better.

The Fentress County Gazette is in operation again, after being discontinued for some months. We have had the Gazette in our home since its first issues, some 25 years ago, and don't see how any one can do without a county paper. We also get the Chronicle and think it one of the best county papers anywhere.

The Dixie Highway Commissioners, of Fentress county, sold their bonds and have advertised for bids on contract work on Jan. 18, so it looks as if we are now going to get a pike road.
